GOOD FOOD & WINE SHOW EVEN BETTER IN 2010!

The 2010 Good Food & Wine Show will be back with tastier and juicier ingredients than ever before. There will be live demonstrations from celebrity chefs and more than 150 food, wine and beverage exhibitors showcasing their fare.

Now in its third year the show will offer added attractions and not only can you savour the tastes in the Show Restaurant, you'll also be able to enjoy plates of food from a select range of gourmet producers around the Show.

The Celebrity Theatre brought to you by Ilve – At this 750-seat theatre, attendees will hear culinary secrets from leading chefs during live on-stage demonstrations. TV chefs George Calombaris, Gary Mehigan, Matt Moran, Manu Fidel, and Dominique Rizzo, and Fifteen Melbourne's Tobie Puttock, will work alongside wine connoisseur Matt Skinner to share the secrets of matching food and wine.

- Gain a deeper understanding of wine at the Riedel Wine Theatre or just enjoy a great drop including boutique and Grange wines at the Riedel Decanter Bar. For the novice or the seasoned wine enthusiast, the highly respected Riedel Glass Tasting will guide you through a Glass Tasting that will engage you in an exploration of the senses of wine.
- NEW FOR 2010! The Gourmet Garden Cooking School is a hot new edition for 2010. Dominique Rizzo will teach participants how to whip up two flavoursome meals using Gourmet Garden products and demonstrating how quick and easy meals during the week can be using fresh Gourmet Garden herbs.
- Cheese fanatics last year loved the introduction of the Cheesematters Masterclass, so it's back for 2010. With plenty of cheese samples learn the latest in matching cheese and wine.
- The popular Show Restaurant will return to dish up culinary delights all weekend.

The Good Food & Wine Show can't wait to take Perth by storm again this July so book early to avoid disappointment. All pre bought tickets include entry into the Celebrity Theatre brought to you by Ilve.
