

MEDIA ALERT

GORDON RAMSAY TO HEADLINE 2009 MELBOURNE & SYDNEY GOOD FOOD & WINE SHOWS

Diversified Exhibitions Australia is bringing international chef Gordon Ramsay to Australia to headline the LG Celebrity Theatre presented by LifeStyle FOOD Channel at the Melbourne and Sydney Good Food & Wine Shows to be held from 5-8 June and 3-5 July respectively.

“Gordon was such a massive hit at last year’s Sydney show, we thought it only fitting that we bring him back to give Sydneysiders another chance to see him and give Melbourne a piece of the pie too,” says James Laing, Exhibition Director.

“We are building a new 2,500 seat theatre to ensure visitors have greater access to see Gordon and the other chefs in action in the LG Celebrity Theatre and wider aisles to ensure maximum visitor comfort.”

The 2009 shows will also see bigger features and highlights including:

- More seats at the Lindeman’s Early Harvest Restaurant where people can taste creations by Gordon and Australia’s own renowned chefs
- Hands on experiences including a cooking school, cheese masterclass and wine tasting sessions
- The Melbourne Good Food & Wine Show will run for 4 days over the Queen’s Birthday long weekend
- More regional and organic producers

Tickets to the Good Food & Wine Shows will be available from Monday 2 February 2009 through Ticketek on 13 28 49. Pre-booking is the best way to jump the queues and guarantee the best seat in the house.

Further information will be available on www.goodfoodshow.com.au

For media enquiries contact Melinda Porteous at Stellar Concepts Australia on 02 9281 8000 or email melinda@stellar.net.au